36. TRISTAN DA CUNHA 2 volume collection housed in two quality black paged stockbooks one with a slipcase which covers the period 1952 (first issue) right through to 2014 and some 2015. A most comprehensive collection. The first few sets are mint very lightly hinged. A seriously comprehensive collection which appears to be missing just the super rare set of Tristan Relief (4) of which only 434 sets were issued and not listed in the Stanley Gibbons catalogue. The collection contains stamps, miniature sheets, varieties, wmk. Changes, Aerogrammes 1966-77, Booklets including SB1a £300, plus the Potato stamps in blocks including a signed Crawford sheetlet. So we have two volumes basically complete for the period in 99% mint and mint unhinged with a Cat. Value for stamps over £10 per set just on £2,900. A magnificent lot for just ($5,000+ Aust.) as a lot$1,399.00
