COLLECTIONS

51. TRISTAN DA CUNHA 1952-2014 A superb mint mostly unhinged collection housed in two quality Lighthouse black paged stockbooks.

The first few sets I are lightly hinged, after 1965 all stamps are unhinged mint. There are a few cto sets included as well as mint including SG 14-27. The collection includes specialised varieties including watermark inverted, SG 66w x 2, in fact there are a lot of watermark inverts. Right through the lot, more than 20 that I saw. A very specialised collection of booklets including an example of SB1a 3/6 Blue postmarked Jan 24 1958 on the back cover. This collection goes right up to 1840-2015 Europhilex stamp Exhibition M/Sheet etc. this superb and very specialised collection has a Catalogue value of more than £2,900+ and many issues are not included in the total if not catalogued at more than £10+ especially the later sets, so many are just free! So around $5,500 Australian dollars in catalogue value for a bargain price for the two volumes (scan is very reduced in size).....$999.00

52. UNITED STATES OF AMERICA 1847-1945 A lovely mint and fine used collection housed on old time Harris pages. There is more than £10,000+ in catalogue value in this lot. It includes SG 14 £1100, SG 73 £200, SG 74 £325, 1869 set to 12c used SG 114-119 £700+, 1870-71 issues complete to 90c Perry £990+, SG193 used £350 x 2SG 161 £375, SG 234 £150, 1893 Columbus to 50c used, £450+, 1898 Mississippi to 50c used £800+, 1917-19 mint values including £5 £275, 1919 Kansis overprints complete SG 655-65 £280, Nebraska is missing the 10c but stil £250 to 9c value, 1918 Airs set mint ASG A546-8 £265, A628-30 mint (3) £150, A732 50c Zeppelin mint no gum. Lots of Officials, Parcel posts, Revenues, also includes coils, Imperfs. And hundreds of back of the book its. So £10,000+ (Aus. Almost $19,000) needs rehousing as the pages are a bit shabby but the stamps are mostly superbly fresh and quite fine used for US stamps which are notoriously heavily cancelled, BARGAIN buy for USA collector (scans very reduced in size to fit space).....$1,499.00
