COLLECTIONS

23. AUSTRALIAN COMEMORATIVE ALBUMS 1999 World Stamp Expo—Housed in three beautiful Maroon Lighthouse specialty albums compiled by Manfred Junge and Co. with matching slipcases, just like new! Inside it states that only 100 sets were produced. Contains all limited edition issues, optional extras and associated issues. All three books are crammed full of mint stamps, miniature sheets, FDC's and specially overprinted issues. It is huge on thematics, trains, animals, flowers, issues by countries all around the world. Booklets, covers, sheetlets, all magnificently presented in black mounts 175+ pages, even a $20 note Maritime Heritage overprinted. Cost the owner more than $1,800 to put together, so now is the time to put your hand up for this one just.....$399.00

24. FRANCE Collection in Davo illustrated album with slipcase covering the period 1849-1970 a mixture of fine used and mint. The pages are showing their age however the stamps are really lovely and fresh and includes fine used SG 14 x 2 40c orange, SG 45 5c green, two examples of SG 131 5F Grey one has a missing corner and the other is damaged, 1870 SG 143, 152, from 1877-1970 the collection is 95% complete including a mint example of SG 470 mint, 1929 Exposition issue, for the period and there is a nice lot of mint sets in the 1935 on period. Just a lovely lot, way too many stamps to list however there is more than £13,000+ ($23,000 Aust) of decent stamps and thousands of pounds of catalogue not listed if stamps were damaged. Nothing catalogued at less than £10+ If you were thinking about starting a fine collection of France this is highly recommended and an amazing purchase which would keep you busy right through the cool months .....$1,999.00

25. HUNGARY A mixed mint and fine used collection on Schaubek illustrated pages some duplication and needs re-housing. It covers the period 1871-1970.
