Just.....$4,499.00

26. ONE VERY SERIOUS KGV COLLECTION

Mostly fine used, with some mint—A very serious collection in three enormous beautiful lighthouse album 2 with printed pages and the 1 1/2d values on Lighthouse black stock sheets in a huge Lighthouse album. All books have listed BW Cat. details with clear mounts for all the varieties. The volumes are lovingly presented, covers all values 1/2d to 1/4. Massive plated varieties and shades study, includes large number of certificates. Shades beautifully presented plus the plated varieties as well. Probably one of the most beautifully presented and loved collections I have had the pleasure to offer. There are lots of covers, blocks both mint and used with varieties noted, Imprints fine used. 1d Reds well presented with certificates on the better items, Die 2's fine used in multiples, 1d Red is presented with 58 Certificates of just 1d Reds, either Michael Drury or Scott Starling certificates. OS overprinted issues, perforated issues with and without varieties, inverted Wmks. Not only are there numerous certificates but with detailed shades, Dry Inks, Tin Shed flaws, plate cracks, plate flaws, misplaced overprints, retouches, cracked electros. Here is a simple breakdown—more than 100 stamps with certificates, more than 3,100 fine used stamps with shades or varieties, around 100 mint stamps mostly with varieties. The super expensive stamps like Eosins, Deep Turquoise etc. have been removed but there is still more than $150,000++ in Cat. Value (prior to the latest updated prices listed in BW KGV) so—if you are a collector looking at going to the next level and want 20 years of hard work and research done for you (as we are all busy these days) and you like a serious bargain, this three volume study if for you, the lot.....$8,499.00
