AUSTRALIAN COLLECTION

21. AUSTRALIA 1913-1970 Old time collection housed in Red covered illustrated in Collecta "one country" Australia album, stamps are all mint and lightly hinged in this multi ring album. Slight aging on some of the pages and a few stamps as noted below however a lovely collection to build upon and perhaps re-house into your own albums and sell any unwanted items through your stamp club. First wmk. (14) Mint Kangaroos to 5/- which is lovely and fresh, however values to 2/- brown a little toned, 2 shades of the 2d, 2nd Wmk 6d Mint hinged toned, Third wmk to £1 Grey (18) with extra shades on 2d, 2 1/2d, 3d, 6d and 9d, lovely fresh 1/- through to 5/-, wmk sideways 1/- extra, the £1 Grey has very minor toning at left, a fresh, Small Multi to 5/- (5) lovely fresh mint hinged, Cof a just 9d and 2/- KGV lovely representation again all mint lightly hinged (60) different including shades and die varieties to 1/4—highlights include 1/4 Pale Blue fresh mint, 1/4 Small Multi 13 1/2 x 12 1/2 mint. 1914 on 1965 is actually complete including both papers on the Navigators, both 5/- Cattles, Arms complete (4) mint lightly hinged, Robes is represented in thick paper only to £1 two shades on the 10/-, definitives all perforations present. The 3d Blue KGV1 is also complete including the White Wattles (6) fresh mint, a superb mint 5/- bridge, both shades of the 1/- Lyre bird, 6d Engraved Kooka is superb mint lightly hinged, Hermes 1/6 includes no wmk mint, both perforations on the Victorian Cent, Navigators complete both papers (8). The only thing really missing from 1914 on (as there is no page) is the 1928 Minisheet however there are so many extras, way too many to list. My cheap retail based on the prices for the individual condition of the stamps listed is more than $4,000++. The face value of the decimals mint lightly hinged is around $125 with 1971 Christmas block 25, booklet panes etc. so a bargain lot for someone prepared to put in the work in breaking it down (images reduced).....$ 1,399.00
