60. AUSTRALIAN COLLECTION 1913-1965 Housed in Maroon Seven Seas illustrated album. Stamps need to be moved as some of the mounts have failed and handwritten notes everywhere however—as my dad would say this collection is a “humdinger!” Mostly mint some Mint unhinged, fine used cto - Kangaroos as lovely examples and includes values to £2 including Specimens, highlights and there are lot in fact. All hand picked examples not usually found in collections, 2/- Maroon third wmk MUH, 5/- Grey and Yellow third wmk mint lightly hinged, in fact there are from my list more than $1,500 worth of Kangaroos per my discounted price list. Specimen Kangaroos on top of that include £1 Brown and Blue Third wmk. minor tone spot, £2 Third wmk Specimen with shaved P variety, KGV is very nice and about 85% complete either mint, Muh, or fine used more than $1,100 of just stamps with a value of more than $10 each so everything else is not even noted in the calculations. 1914-1965 is about 85% complete and includes 6d Engraved Kooka MUH, Kooka M/S minor thin so on the list at a fraction of hinged mint price, Robes thick paper complete MUH W/C, most commemoratives (except 5/- Bridge) are present either MUH or MLH, great examples. Navigators are present mint lightly hinged complete, Specimen Arms no 10/- but £1 and £2 are MUH, OS issues includes Kingsford Smith set MUH (2), BCOF complete MUH thin paper 5/-, so discounted retail prices of more than $2,200 for the 1914-65 section. If you were thinking of starting off on the Kangaroos and KGV this is the lot for you, wonderful to sort out and save some serious money as the entire collection is just..... $ 2,299.00
